AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA
CONCERNING THE UNITED STATES VOLUNTEER PROGRAM IN CHINA

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of the People's Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as "Party" or "Parties"), recognizing the importance of developing friendship and cooperation between their countries, have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

1. The Government of the United States will send to China such Volunteers through the Peace Corps Program (to be known in China as the U.S. - China Friendship Volunteers and hereinafter referred to as "Volunteers" or the "Program") as may be mutually agreed by the two Parties to perform mutually agreed tasks in China.
2. The Volunteers will work under the immediate supervision of governmental and private organizations in China designated by our two governments. For these purposes, the Ministry of Education has responsibility for matters affecting the Program that involve the national or local governments, including taking administrative action, policy decisions, interagency cooperation, consultation with other ministries regarding programming outside the education sector, or national coordination. The Chinese Education Association for International Exchange, acting under the general guidance and supervision of the Ministry of Education, has primary responsibility for helping to facilitate and coordinate Program operations at the local level.
3. The Government of the United States will provide training to enable the Volunteers to perform their tasks in the most effective manner.
4. The Government of China will facilitate matters for the Program and bear such share of the costs of the Program incurred in China as the two Parties may agree.

ARTICLE II

1. The Volunteers should obey the laws of China and the rules and regulations of their Program site work unit. The Government of China, as the host country, will accord equitable treatment to the Volunteers and their property; accord them all necessary aid and protection, including treatment no less favorable than that accorded generally to nationals of the United States residing in China; and fully inform, consult, and cooperate with representatives of the United States with respect to all such matters.
2. The Government of China will exempt the Volunteers and persons performing functions under contract with the Program who are not citizens of China from all taxes on payments that they receive to defray their living costs, on income derived from their work for the Program; and on income from other sources outside China; and from all customs duties or other charges on their personal property introduced into China for their own use. The Government of China will issue, without fee, residence permits, health certificates, and visas, including multiple-entry visas, to Volunteers and persons performing functions under contract with the Program and will absorb any other charges or fees required for such persons to serve in China, except license fees.

ARTICLE III

1. The Government of the United States will provide the Volunteers with such limited quantities of equipment and supplies as the two Parties may consider necessary to enable the Volunteers to perform their tasks effectively.
2. The Government of China will exempt from all taxes (including the value-added tax on vehicles), customs duties, and other charges all Program equipment and supplies introduced into or acquired in China by the Government of the United States, or any contractor financed by it, for use hereunder.

ARTICLE IV

1. For effective implementation of the Program in China, the Government of China will receive an official Program Representative of the United States to serve as Program Director in China (hereinafter referred to as "Director") and such staff to work with the Director (including employees and contractor personnel as designated by the Director), and members of their families forming part of their households, as are acceptable to the Government of China. The Government of China will exempt such persons who are not citizens of China from all taxes on income derived from their work for the Program or other sources outside China; and from all customs duties or other charges on their personal property introduced into China for their own use.
2. The Director, staff, and members of their families forming part of their households, who are not citizens of China, shall be accorded status equivalent to that accorded administrative and technical staff personnel of the diplomatic mission of the United States, except they will not be accorded immunities.
3. The Government of China will issue, without fee, residence permits, health certificates, and visas, including multiple-entry visas, to the Director, staff, and individuals performing functions under this Agreement, and members of their families forming part of their household, except that a fee will be charged for visas issued to accompanying spouses who are engaged in other work in China and to children who are more than 18 years of age. The Chinese Party will absorb any other charges or fees required for such persons to serve in China, except license fees.

ARTICLE V

The Government of China will exempt from investment and deposit requirements and currency controls or restrictions all funds introduced into China to pay for Program costs, operations, or activities under this Agreement by the Government of the United States or contractors financed by it. Such funds shall be convertible into the currency of China at the highest rate that is not unlawful in China.

ARTICLE VI

1. Appropriate representatives of the two Parties may make such arrangements with respect to the Volunteers and the Program in China as appear necessary or appropriate for the purpose of implementing this Agreement.
2. Any disputes arising under this Agreement will be resolved amicably by the two Parties.

ARTICLE VII

The activities of each Party under this Agreement are subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

ARTICLE VIII

This agreement may be amended by mutual consent of the two Parties.

ARTICLE IX

This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of signature and shall remain in force until ninety days after the date of the written notification from either Party to the other of its intention to terminate the Agreement.

2、 中国政府将免除志愿者及项目外籍合同工作人员的以下税收：生活费收入、志愿者项目工作的收入、其它来自中国境外的收入；同时免除其携带入境的个人自用物品的全部关税或其它费用。中国政府将免费发给志愿者和项目外籍合同工作人员在中国工作的居留证、健康证明、签证（包括多次出入境签证）并将负担与其在中国服务相关的任何其它费用，但证照费除外。

2、 项目主任、外籍工作人员及与他们同住的家庭成员将享有美国外交使团行政及技术人员同等的身份，但他们不享有外交豁免权。

3、 中国政府将免费为项目主任、工作人员、承担与此协议有关任务的人员以及与他们同住的家庭成员办理居留证、健康证明和签证（包括多次入境签证）。他们的随行配偶如在中国从事其它工作或子女年满18岁以上，将不免除签证费。中方将负担与他们在华服务相关的任何其它费用，但证照费除外。

第五条

对于美国政府或由美方出资的承包商根据本协议引入中国用于支付项目运行及其它活动所需的资金，中国政府将使其免受中国投资、存款及货币流通制度的限制。此项资金应能在中国以合法的方式按最高汇率兑换成中国货币。

第六条
